

LIMAVADY

The Twelfth of July for North Londonderry returns to the capital of the Roe Valley with Limavady District LOL No. 6 hosting the demonstration for the first time in the town since 2016.

Brethren of the 15 Lodges, Ladies Lodge, Junior Lodges and 11 Bands from Limavady District look forward to welcoming visiting brethren, sisters and bands from Coleraine and Macosquin Districts, as well as the City of Londonderry Grand Orange Lodge comprising of three Districts from Londonderry, Cumber Claudy and East Donegal.

A number of visitors from Scotland will also take part in the parade.

The parade will leave from Church Street at 12noon lead by Limavady District LOL No.6, The City Grand Lodge of Londonderry, Coleraine District LOL No.2 and Macosquin District LOL No.8 and parade through the town centre to the Orange Field at Roemill Road with 40 bands taking part including Flute, Accordion and Pipe.

Assistant Grand Master of the Grand OrangeLodge of Ireland and District Master of Limavady District LOL No. 6 Rt. Wor. Bro. Mark Smyth will chair platform proceedings. The guest speaker will be Rt. Wor. Bro. Stuart Brooker, Past Assistant Grand Master, Past County Grand Master County Fermanagh.

The usual attractions will be based in the field for a family day out.

The return parade starts at 3.15pm with the Limavady Lodges breaking ranks on Protestant Street to allow visiting Brethren, Sisters and Bands personnel to pass through to their buses on Church Street.